

Subject Line: MIT Graduate Research Advising Survey 2021

The Graduate Research Advising Survey is made by students, for students, to better understand the relationships between advisees and their advisors when conducting research as a graduate student. This survey is conducted by the GSC's Subcommittee on Advising and should take about 10 - 20 minutes.

Enter the Survey (Kerberos used for authentication but not attached to responses)

Or copy and paste the URL below into your internet browser:

https://mit.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_bm9sGh6lZrvm1GB

Eligibility: MIT graduate students conducting research under the supervision of an advisor

When: Survey is open now until February 15

Prizes: GSC is giving away prizes to five random participants in the survey

Questions: Check out our FAQ section or contact the survey organizers at gsc-arc-advising@mit.edu.

Thanks for your time,

The GSC's Subcommittee on Advising