KOCH INSTITUTE DIRECTORS PANEL

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 14, 2021
AT 6:30 P.M. ON ZOOM

Celebrate the enduring legacy of cancer research at MIT. Current and former directors reflect on the past five decades of progress—from seminal discoveries in molecular biology and immunology to new innovations in nanotechnology and precision medicine—and look ahead to future advancements in the fight against cancer. Join in the conversation as we commemorate the people, projects, and promise of integrative cancer research.
