

Verification of English Language Proficiency

Effective January 5, 2015, US Department of State regulations require that J-1 program sponsors verify the English language proficiency of J-1 exchange visitors when screening for program eligibility (22 CFR §62.10(a)(2)).

Re: Name of J-1 exchange visitor: _____
Last First

I confirm that the above-named international scholar has sufficient English language ability to engage in his/her program at MIT and function in daily life. English proficiency was confirmed by one of the following permissible methods (please check one or more and fill in the requested details):

In-person interview. Date of interview (month/year): _____

Videoconference interview. Date of interview (month/year): _____

Telephone interview* Date of interview (month/year): _____
(*only if videoconferencing was not available)

English Language Proficiency Test: _____
(test name, score, date)

Signed documentation from an academic institution or English Language school
(documentation/letter must be uploaded to EISD or attached to Forms A/B)

The scholar's first/native language is English

_____
Signature of MIT faculty host or P.I. (may be digital signature)

_____
Date

_____
Name (Printed)

_____
Title