

Funding in Biotech Seminar Series

Dr. Andrew Lo - Charles E. and Susan T. Harris
Professor at the MIT Sloan School of Management

Andrew Lo, PhD

Join us for an educational seminar with a professor at the MIT Sloan School of Management to gain insight into the various funding sources in biotech and how to navigate them.

Dr. Andrew W. Lo is the Charles E. and Susan T. Harris Professor at the MIT Sloan School of Management and has been studying the financing of biotech and pharma companies for the last two decades. In addition, as an investor, board member, advisor, and co-founder of several biotech companies---including BridgeBio Pharma, QLS Advisors, Roivant Sciences, Quantile Health, and Uncommon Cures---he brings a practical perspective to the funding challenges facing biotech entrepreneurs at all stages of their businesses.
